

The Institute for
Public Procurement

Generate greater value and enhance the buyer/supplier relationship

Supplier Partner

We know how to buy goods and services to solve state and local government procurement challenges. That's why NIGP offers a Supplier Partner program to help you join a supplier community to learn the ins and outs of public procurement.

Course Benefits

- Learn a procurement process
- Understand the nuances of public procurement
- Meet other procurement professionals in your community

NIGP Member
